

Marking	Symbol	Biking	Driving
Bike Lane		Ride within lane—dotted lines indicate intersection crossings	Don't drive in bike lane—Use caution when crossing—only pass bikes with 4 feet
Buffered Bike Lane		Don't ride in the buffer —ride in the bike lane	Don't drive in the buffer or lane
Contra-flow Lane		Ride in the opposite direction of vehicle traffic within lane	Don't drive in bike lane—expect bikes going in opposite direction
Advisory Lane		Ride within dotted lane	Yield to bikes and pedestrians before merging into dotted lane, share with cars
Neighborhood Greenway		Follow markings along route	Drive slowly over markings Use caution when crossing, only pass bikes with 4 feet
Bike Box		Wait in green area at stop light—the box is for you!	Wait behind the “WAIT HERE” Markings, don't go in green box while waiting
Green Bike Lane		Ride within lane—indicates potential conflict zone	Don't drive in lane—indicates potential conflict zone
Green Dashed Bike Lane		Ride within lane —indicates potential conflict zone—expect buses and cars	Indicates potential conflict zone—use caution when crossing— pass bikes with 4 feet
Shared Lane Markings		Ride over the marking in same direction as traffic—use caution next to car doors	Drive over markings—only pass bikes with 4 feet
Intersection Markings		Follow markings—Indicates potential conflict zone	Use caution when crossing— pass bikes with 4 feet
Left Turn Box		Enter box and wait till safe to turn left—Indicates potential conflict zone	Watch for Bikes entering or exiting lane—Indicates potential conflict zone